

Learning “Alleluia”

FR. JOSEPH JUKNIALIS

I overheard this conversation in a coffee shop:

Child: Mom, I wouldn't have to go to school today. I could stay home with you.

Mom: I know, Joe, but I think Mrs. Burns would miss you.

Child: But won't you miss me, Mom?

Mom: Sure, Joe, but I know you'll be back in the afternoon, and I can be with you then.

Child: But I could help you in the kitchen.

Mom: What do you think you'll be doing in school today? It's getting close to Easter. I bet Mrs. Burns will let you make bunnies.

Child: Yeah, maybe. Mom, I think my tummy hurts.

Mom: Oh, I think it'll get better once you're busy in school.

Child: Mom, couldn't I stay home with you today? I'll miss you.

Mom: I know you will, Joe, but it's only for a couple of hours. How's your apple juice?

Child: OK. Mom, I think it would be OK if I stayed home today.

By the time they left, it looked as if Joe was going to school. Joe was learning an important lesson in life. Sometimes we have to do what we don't want to; we have to go into what seems to be “the tomb of death” if we're going to find life.

Easter's Gospel is that of Peter and John going and finding the tomb empty. Curiously, they didn't become believers until they entered the tomb, until they entered death's home. It's how faith happens, finding life when we expected only death and recognizing the hand of God in it. ●

Reflect

Have you ever had a Lazarus Experience—called out of a dark place into the light?

Let us celebrate the feast, not with the old yeast, the yeast of malice and wickedness, but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

HE IS RISEN"

Matthew 28:6

Glorious and Grace-filled Easter Greetings, Hallelujah! Today is the Feast of Easter, the Feast of the Resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead. "Jesus said to her, 'I am the resurrection and the life; he who believes in me, though he dies, yet shall he live.'" (John 11:25). Today, we remember Jesus' s ultimate sacrifice and praise God for the gift of everlasting life! It is with great joy that I wish to extend warm wishes for a beautiful and happy Easter to all visitors, parishioners, and staff.

In the Easter Gospel, Mary Magdalene visits Jesus' tomb on the first day of the week and finds the stone removed from the entrance. She runs to tell Peter and the beloved disciple, who both go to the tomb and find it empty, with the burial cloths lying there. Although they do not understand what has happened, the beloved disciple sees and believes, while Peter remains puzzled. I wonder, do you relate more to the beloved disciple or Peter?

Our Easter readings center on the goodness, power, and saving work of God throughout history, culminating in the ultimate victory of Jesus over sin and death through his Resurrection. The readings emphasize the importance of faith and trust in God, dying to sin and being raised to new life through baptism, and seeking heavenly rewards rather than earthly ones. The Resurrection is at the heart of our Christian faith and assures us that death does not have the final say. Christ's Resurrection gives us hope and comfort that even in the midst of suffering and death, God will never abandon us! But we must do our part and turn our hearts to God, letting go of our sin and selfishness and embracing Jesus' holy example of a life lived in service, love, and righteousness.

As we conclude our Lenten journey together, I wish to express my gratitude to all who accompanied our people throughout this season of renewal by sharing their God-given gifts and talents. I would like to thank in a special way: Our Liturgy committee, Sacristans and office staff for preparing our Masses, prayer services, and keeping our people informed through emails, church bulletin, and social media throughout Lent and Holy Week. A special recognition for those who have decorated our Narthex and Sanctuary and all the hours of work that were involved in making our church so beautiful and liturgically appropriate for the celebrations of Holy Week and Easter. Thank you to our choir for assisting us as we entered into our Lord's passion, death, and resurrection through the gift of music. Thank you to those who participated as lectors, altar servers, extraordinary ministers of the Eucharist, and hospitality ministers. We offer our gratitude to all those behind the scenes who coordinated numerous Lenten activities for our parishioners, such as:

- Stations of the Cross – Women's prayer group, Men's Prayer Group, Altar Society, Knights of Columbus, Youth, Pastoral Council, and Anchor Prayer Group
- Lenten Resource Table – Faith Formation Program
- Knights of Columbus Fish Fry
- Hunger Challenge – Youth Ministry

Together we have been blessed to use our time and talents to praise and adore our Risen Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. As we spend this Easter celebrating the joyful news of our Risen Lord, I encourage you to devote some time today to remembering our call to peace, love and forgiveness and to offer a prayer of thanksgiving for the great gift of Jesus in our lives.

Happy Easter!

REJOICE AND BE GLAD

So let us rejoice and be glad this Easter, as we celebrate the triumph of Jesus over sin and death. Let us give thanks to God for the gift of new life, and let us renew our commitment to follow Jesus, the risen Lord, wherever he may lead us. May the hope and joy of Easter fill our hearts and our lives, now and always.

Reflection Questions for Easter

- In what ways does the risen Christ appear in your life?
- What does the Resurrection mean to you personally?
- How has the message of Easter transformed your life?
- What areas of your life need transformation through the Resurrection?
- How can you share the message of the Resurrection with others effectively?
- How has the Resurrection brought you hope during difficult times?
- What steps can you take to deepen your faith in the Resurrection?
- In what ways can you live without fear, trusting in God's presence in your life?
- How can you be a source of new life and hope for those around you?
- How can you keep the joy of Easter alive in your heart all year round?
- Where do you turn for guidance and clarity when life becomes confusing?
- What practical ways can you spread the Good News of the Resurrection in your daily life?

Spring break is here! How will you incorporate your faith?

ON THE ROAD AGAIN

Many families hit the road during spring break and whatever the destination, there's bound to be a bit of time in the car that needs filling. Along with the usual snacks, games, movies and other entertainment, slip a little faith focus into the mix.

- Start the trip with a prayer for safe travels.
- Sing some favorite hymns. Ask if you can borrow a hymnal from church. (Be sure to return it!)
- Pray a Rosary together when tempers get short.
- Listen to the local Catholic radio station as you pass through an area.
- Play "spot the Catholic church" as you enter a town.
- List all the towns you pass through with Catholic names, such as St. Paul, San Jose.
- Remember to say grace before meals and evening prayers before bed.

Youth Ministry

We had a great group come together last night, March 31, for the annual Mercer County Hunger Challenge. Heaven Sent Ministries coordinates this event each year at Johnson's Chapel. Volunteers come together to sponsor the cost of the food and help pack the meals to be sent to starving children.

Thank You! to the Pace Family for graciously purchasing the tables for this event. "We are humbled and grateful."

“Formed” for Kids

Based on the award-winning Bible! Join Minno kids Margot, Lexi, Miguel, and Logan as they continue their journey through Jesus' life and learn the story of Easter. This gentle retelling—from Jesus' miracles to the greatest miracle of all—His resurrection, will help kids understand why Jesus came to earth to be our Savior and our friend.

Join Brother Francis as he celebrates the power and splendor of the Resurrection of Jesus Christ in this moving and instructive animated presentation!

This episode includes:

An animated presentation of key points in the life of Jesus Christ, His Death on the Cross, triumph over death, and Ascension to the Father. A visual representation of how we celebrate Holy Week and the Easter Triduum "He Is Risen!"—a joyful, visualized song that fills our hearts with praise to God. Steeped in Scripture and instruction, Brother Francis: He Is Risen! is a wonderful reminder of the reality of God's power and presence!

In case of Illness: Please call the parish office to let us know if you, a family member, or a parishioner is sick. We can place your name on the prayer list. If requested, Fr. Sebastian will arrange for distributing Holy Communion in the home.

Nursing homes, rehabilitation centers and anyone who is hospitalized are not permitted to contact the church. If someone you know is in the hospital, please call the church office.

In case of serious or life threatening sickness or the actively dying: The church should be contacted as soon as possible. People deserve the opportunity to confess their sins, profess their faith, be anointed, and receive Holy Communion – the foretaste and pledge of eternal life. PLEASE don't wait until after the person is unconscious or so sedated that he or she cannot communicate. It is imperative with current situations, that there be enough time for Fr. to go through the appropriate protocol to visit the actively dying.

Dear Padre,

Why should I believe Jesus founded the Catholic Church?

What a great question, especially during our Easter season, when the readings at Mass are about how the early Church discovers its mission and identity. Jesus intended to found a Church to carry on his mission.

Jesus chose twelve men to accompany him and learn from him. He passed on his mission to them: "Whoever listens to you listens to me. Whoever rejects you rejects me. And whoever rejects me rejects the one who sent me" (Luke 10:16). Jesus called Simon Bar-Jonah "Peter," meaning "rock." Indicating his foundational role, Jesus said to Peter, "I will give you the keys to the kingdom of heaven. Whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven; and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven" (Matthew 16:19).

Throughout the New Testament, we read how the apostles in their turn passed on their authority to other individuals by the laying on of hands (Acts 6:6; 13:3; 1 Timothy 4:14; 2 Timothy 1:6). Initially, the only two orders were bishops and deacons, but soon priests were also ordained to share some of the authority of the bishop and to be his assistants.

The Church would exist and do Jesus' work until the end of time. The whole Church, the "Body of Christ," as Paul would call it (1 Corinthians 12:27), would be Christ acting in the world on his behalf. The Church and all its members are to be "the light of the world" and "the salt of the earth" (Matthew 5:13-16). ✨

A WORD FROM POPE FRANCIS

The peace Jesus gives to us at Easter is not the peace that follows the strategies of the world, which believes it can obtain it through force.... This peace, in reality, is only an interval between wars.... The peace of the Lord follows the way of meekness and mildness: it is taking responsibility for others.
