The Virtue of Hope: "In You O Lord is Our Hope, and We Shall Not Hope in Vain"

Let's keep all those attending the National Eucharistic Congress in our thoughts and prayers as they travel to Indianapolis. It's important to pray for the renewal of our Church, knowing that God hears our prayers and can bring about a transformation in our own hearts.

Fr. Sebastian, Lorin Albin, Joe Derico, Loretta Hammond, Mary Malamisura, Laura Wyatt, and Maria Zalduondo

Second Collection:

Please be generous in this week's special collection for the Catholic Campaign for Human Development. In the United States, over 11% of the population lives in poverty. Through this collection, you support programs that address the root causes of poverty and provide a sustainable future for those struggling across the country. In addition, 25% of the funds we collect remain in our diocese to fund local anti-poverty projects. Please prayerfully consider how you can support this collection and those working on the margins. More information about the Catholic Campaign for Human Development can be found at www.usccb.org/cchd

Order of Christian Initiation: Living Out Our Call

In a world that for too long has been too fast-paced and adrenaline-driven, Jesus's words to his disciples after their apparently successful first missionary journey are a message that we too need to hear: "Come away and rest for a while." We need at least every Sunday to reinvigorate ourselves both physically and spiritually; otherwise we will not be able to live the gospel in a convincing way.

Discussion Questions

How has your time been spent lately in building the kingdom/reign of God?

1. Where have you found unexpected rest and reinvigoration?
2. Who has been shepherding you? Whom have you been shepherding?

Bible Study:

Weekly Bible study with our Missionary Sisters Alejandra & Janette. We will meet in the classrooms downstairs. They will offer in English and Spanish.

Faith Formation:

Would you like to help with Religious Education? You don't have to be a religious expert to teach religious education. All you need is a love for Jesus and a desire to share his message.

Even if you're not ready to be a catechist, we need substitutes and helpers to support our program. If you feel called to this ministry, pray about it and contact us for more information. Together, we can help children learn about the love of Christ. Contact Laura Wyatt for more info.

Youth Ministry:

- ◆ Javas with Jesus is Back. Be on the lookout for dates of the next one, and RSVP to Lorin.
- ◆ Matt Maher Concert, be sure to RSVP now to Lorin if you plan to attend.

Walking with Purpose: Book we will use is Fearless and Free.

We will start on Thursday, July 25. Please be sure to order your book if you haven't already done so.

Session 1: Freedom gives an overview Fearless and Free. We'll be introduced to the three parts of our journey: the Wakening, the Wrestling and the Warrior.

If you would like to join our group or need more information please reach out to KD Coleman or Laura Wyatt.

All ladies are welcome, we have a seat waiting for you!

In case of illness: Please call the parish office to let us know if you, a family member, or a parishioner is sick. We can place your name on the prayer list. If requested, Fr. Sebastian will arrange for distributing Holy Communion in the home.

Nursing homes, rehabilitation centers and anyone who is hospitalized are not permitted to contact the church. If someone you know is in the hospital, please call the church office.

In case of serious or life threatening sickness or the actively dying: The church should be contacted as soon as possible. People deserve the opportunity to confess their sins, profess their faith, be anointed, and receive Holy Communion – the foretaste and pledge of eternal life. PLEASE don't wait until after the person is unconscious or so sedated that he or she cannot communicate. It is imperative with current situations, that there be enough time for Fr. to go through the appropriate protocol to visit the actively dying.

The Third Precept of the Church

You shall receive Holy Communion at least once a year, during the Easter Season

This precept of the Church seems like a no brainer. You might remark "I receive communion every time I go to mass." This sentiment however was not always that common, Catholics as early as the turn of the 20th century only received communion once a year, because the sacraments weren't always available to them, or because they considered themselves unworthy to receive our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament. With that in mind, we must see the Blessed Sacrament as a gift to us from God, rather than a right which we have as Catholics. This is why the church says that we must be in the state of grace (absence of sin) in order to receive the Blessed Sacrament, because it is not a right, it is a privilege.

So, while the church commands us to receive holy communion at least once per year, we must receive our Lord worthily. In order to do this, we must observe the first two precepts of the church as well as the third. We must go to confession and to mass, before we are worthy to receive our Lord in the Eucharist. So, the next time you go up the aisle to receive communion, take a minute to see if you are really worthily receiving our Lord. And if you aren't, then get to confession, there is no shame in going, but there is a lot of shame in not going.
