

Called from the Pits

FR. JOSEPH JUKNIALIS

When I feel sorry for myself or just down in the dumps, when I feel buried by life not going the way I think it should, sometimes I remember to stop thinking about myself and my problems, and I say to myself, I need to go care about someone else. It seems that doing so pulls me out of that tomb of darkness and back into the light. Then I ask myself, Why didn't I do that sooner? The truth is, I didn't remember. But the very fact that I eventually do remember is the spirit of God dwelling within me that pulls me back into life, just as Paul once wrote (Romans 8:9 and the verses afterward). It's like hearing a voice calling me out of a dreary tomb of death, just as sure as Lazarus heard Jesus calling him out.

Have you experienced times when your spirit feels deadlier than dead, but then someone or something calls you back into life? I have. When that happens to us, I think we've been blessed with a hint of the resurrection. When I find myself wondering if there is really life beyond death, if resurrection really does happen to us, then I think about all the times that what I thought was a death turned out to be some unexpected doorway to new life. If that happens with such little deaths along the way, wouldn't it also happen on our last day on this earth? ●

Reflect

Have you ever experienced something that seemed terrible at the time that turned out to be a blessing in disguise?

"Lazarus, come out!" The dead man came out, tied hand and foot with burial bands, and his face was wrapped in a cloth. Jesus said..., "Untie him and let him go."

Fifth Sunday of Lent

Dear Sacred Heart Family,

This coming Sunday, we encounter the story of Lazarus. Of all the miracles Jesus did, the raising of Lazarus ranks as the most astonishing to the people of his time. Martha thought the situation was hopeless. Lazarus was dead, but Jesus brought him back to life. Many Christian individuals and communities today have fallen victim to the death of sin. Many are already in the tomb of hopelessness and decay, in the bondage of sinful habits and attitudes. Nothing short of a miracle can bring us back to life in Christ. How can we cooperate with God so as to experience God's resurrection power in our lives and in our world? Jesus is ready to transform us with a miracle. He himself said, "I came that they may have life, and have it abundantly" (John 10:10). Are we ready to cooperate with him to receive this miracle? Are we ready to roll away the stone that stands between us and the light of Christ's face? Are we ready to take the first step to come out of the tomb of death? Are we ready to unbind (i.e., forgive) one another and set each other free? If we cooperate with God, he will bring us back to life and revive us as individuals, churches, a nation and a world. Before Jesus did anything but weep, he asked the sisters of Lazarus, the dead man,

Do you believe that I am the resurrection and the life?

Do you believe that I am the Light of the world?

Do you believe that I can bring the dead to life?

Do you believe that those who live in darkness can see the Light because of me?

When they said, Yes, Lord, we believe, then Jesus said, Take me to the tomb of Lazarus, where Lazarus had been buried for four days. They warned Jesus that the body would be corrupt. But what did he say? Take away the stone. Only when they took away the stone did Jesus say, Lazarus, come forth, and Lazarus was restored to a new life, greater than any he had dreamed of before.... Our Lord says,

Do you want new life?

Do you want light in the darkness?

Take away the stone....

Only we know if there is a stone before our hearts. Only we, with God's help, can remove that stone. Then the Lord who suffered and died for everyone in the world will say to each of us, Rise to new life. Be filled with my Light.

Prayerfully in Christ,

Father Sebastian

Fifth Sunday of Lent: Dying and Rising

NATIONAL Eucharistic Revival

THE GRACE I SEEK: to believe that Jesus will give me new life

IN THE NAME OF THE FATHER, AND OF THE SON, AND OF THE HOLY SPIRIT. AMEN.

Jesus, the Lord of Life, has given himself to you in the Eucharist. He is gazing upon you, his beloved child, with great love in this very moment. Pause for a few moments and wonder at his gift for you. Allow yourself to rest in his loving gaze.

Thank Jesus for the gift of himself in the Eucharist.

ASK FOR THE GRACE: Jesus, help me believe that you will give me new life.

SCRIPTURE MEDITATION — Read slowly, 3-4 times. Allow the words of Scripture to wash over your mind and heart. Allow the Holy Spirit to speak to you through this passage.

"O my people, I will open your graves and have you rise from them, and bring you back to the land of Israel. Then you shall know that I am the LORD, when I open your graves and have you rise from them, O my people!" (Ezekiel 37:12-13)

REFLECTION QUESTION — Allow yourself to sit with these questions for a while, being attentive to how the Lord is speaking in your heart.

How are you "spiritually" buried right now? What parts of your heart feel lost in darkness and death? Speak to Jesus about these places of sorrow and loss.

SCRIPTURE MEDITATION — Read slowly, 3-4 times. Again, allow the words of Scripture to wash over your mind and heart. Let the Holy Spirit speak to you through this passage.

"[Jesus] cried out in a loud voice, 'Lazarus, come out!' The dead man came out, tied hand and foot with burial bands, and his face was wrapped in a cloth. So Jesus said to them, 'Untie him and let him go.'" (John 11:43-44)

REFLECTION QUESTION — Allow yourself to sit with these questions for a while, being attentive to how the Lord is speaking in your heart.

Jesus has power over life and death. The grave is no hindrance to his creative love. Imagine Jesus commanding you by name to "come out!" of whatever spiritual grave has robbed you of life. Gazing upon Jesus in the Eucharist, ask him to gently untie the burial cloths around that place in your heart most in need of resurrection and new life. Ask him for the courage to bring any sins that weigh you down to the Sacrament of Reconciliation.

Remain in silence with the Lord. Allow him to speak in the silence, in your heart. Receive his presence. If it helps, write down what you sense the Lord communicating to you during this time of prayer.

CLOSING PRAYER — By your help, we beseech you, Lord our God, may we walk eagerly in that same charity with which, out of love for the world, your Son handed himself over to death. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever. (Collect, Fifth Sunday of Lent)

SUNDAY MASS CONNECTION — At every Mass, Jesus offers himself to the Father for us. We can always join our own offerings with Jesus at Mass. This Sunday, offer your desire for new life where your heart needs it most.

Are you looking for something challenging to do during Lent? Try to fast from comparing yourself to others. When we become more accepting of our own gifts and talents and less envious of what others can do, we can live in a new freedom. Here are some places you might find yourself especially vulnerable to comparing yourself to others:

- in the classroom
- at work
- on the playing field
- social media at home with siblings

The Hour of Our Death | Eternal Rest | Episode 3

The Anointing of the Sick is one of the seven sacraments of the Church. This session, we discover the role of this sacramental anointing in the spiritual struggle during serious illness, the final stages of our temporal life, and the hour of our death.

Mother Teresa: Seeing the Face of Jesus

Whatever you do unto the least of these, you do unto me. Mother Teresa always remembered these words of Jesus. She said that she saw the face of Jesus in the face of each sick and dying person she helped. She asked the whole world to look for Jesus' face there, too. This movie presents the life and work of Mother Teresa with words and pictures that even the youngest child will enjoy. Children will happily learn that Mother Teresa was a person whose strong faith and trust in God helped her to make incredible changes in our world.

Easy Caprese Calzones

It's like a little piece of Italy in your kitchen!

Prep Time	Cook Time	Total Time
10 mins	15 mins	25 mins

Servings: 4

Ingredients

- 1 Tube of Refrigerated Pizza Crust
- 2 Roma Tomatoes sliced into 1/4" pieces
- 8 to 12 Fresh Basil leaves sliced into thin strips (about 1/3 cup)
- 100 g approx 4 oz mozzarella, cut into 1/2" cubes
- Spaghetti Sauce for dipping

Instructions

1. Preheat the oven to 425F.
2. Open the tube of pizza crust and unroll it onto parchment paper (or a lightly floured surface). Gently roll it with a rolling pin to flatten it out and shape it into a rectangle. Cut the dough into 4 equal rectangles.
3. Add the tomato slices, mozzarella and basil to each of the rectangles.
4. Fold in the long edges of each calzone and gently pinch them closed. Then pinch tightly to close the ends. Flip them over so the seam is on the bottom.
5. Bake at 425F for 11 to 14 minutes, until they're golden brown.
6. Serve with a side of Spaghetti sauce for dipping.

Nursing homes, rehabilitation centers and anyone who is hospitalized are not permitted to contact the church. If someone you know is in the hospital, please call the church office.

In case of serious or life threatening sickness or the actively dying: The church should be contacted as soon as possible. People deserve the opportunity to confess their sins, profess their faith, be anointed, and receive Holy Communion – the foretaste and pledge of eternal life. PLEASE don't wait until after the person is unconscious or so sedated that he or she cannot communicate. It is imperative with current situations, that there be enough time for Fr. to go through the appropriate protocol

Dear Padre,

Are Catholic religious orders dying?

Yes...and no.

In Africa and Asia, some religious orders are vibrant, with orders of men and women religious increasing in number. In the United States, Europe, and Oceania, it's a different story. As many as 300 of the 420 institutes of women religious in the US are in their final decades of existence (Leadership Conference of Women Religious, 2019). One-third of all women's congregations in the US have fewer than fifty members. In the US, sisters over age ninety far outnumber those under sixty. Consequently, many communities fall short of the number of active ministers needed to replace their elderly and retiring members. The story is similar for many orders of religious men.

As those in religious orders struggle to remain effective in their mission and ministry for God and humanity, they are reimagining styles of leadership, levels of administration, and, in short, ways of getting the job done. This includes, for example, creative partnerships with laypeople to share in the charism, community life, and ministry of the religious order.

People are still drawn to Jesus and the work of building the kingdom. Only God knows how this "building process" will look in the future. As in all challenging times, the Church remains hopeful. From crisis comes resurrection! ●
